ONLINE AUCTION GENERAL CONDITIONS

LEILOSOC[®] is responsible for ensuring the proper conduct of the Online Auction, which is ruled by the following general conditions of sale:

A. REGISTRATION ON THE LEILOSOC[®] AUCTION PORTAL

1. Bidders and potential buyers must be duly registered on the LEILOSOC[®] portal before placing any bids.
2. When creating an account at leilosoc.com, all necessary identification elements for billing and/or drafting the Promise to Buy and Sell Agreement must be provided, such as name, address/headquarters, ID number/Citizen Card or Permanent Certificate, and Fiscal Number.
3. After completing the registration, an email confirmation will be required. This confirmation is essential to validate the email and allow bidding.
4. The bidder assumes the accuracy of the provided data, as well as all obligations and responsibilities arising from such an act, particularly the obligation to acquire the item(s) for the amount offered, in accordance with the law and these General Conditions of Sale.

B. ABOUT THE ITEMS IN AUCTION

5. The items (real estate or movable assets, whether subject to registration or not) are sold in the condition, physical and legal state in which they are found, and LEILOSOC[®] declines any responsibility regarding their condition of conservation or operation. Unless otherwise stated, they are transferred free of liens or encumbrances, persons, and goods.
6. Decree-Law 84/2021 - "Consumer Protection," which regulates consumer rights in the purchase and sale of goods, digital content, and services, does not apply to sales made in the context of asset liquidation in insolvency or enforcement proceedings (as per Article 4, No. 1, point a). Bids are binding, and the bidder is not allowed to request the cancellation of their bid.
7. All online auctions include a period to visit the assets - at pre-defined hours or by appointment. When the visiting period is pre-defined, the time and address where the assets can be visited are disclosed in the auction area and/or in the asset area. When visits are by appointment, you should contact LEILOSOC[®] to schedule the visit. The buyer is responsible for inspecting the item, and the lack of this analysis cannot be attributed to LEILOSOC[®].
8. The sale of real estate in insolvency proceedings is exempt, under the law, from the presentation of the Usage License, Energy Certification, and Technical Sheet.

C. DURATION OF THE ONLINE AUCTION

9. The auction will take place during the period advertised in the auction area, consisting of a start date and time and an end date and time.
10. In the last 5 minutes of each auction, new bids restart the countdown by 5 minutes. For example, if an auction is scheduled to end at 17:00 and a bid is placed at 16:58, the auction is automatically extended by 5 minutes, ending at 17:03, and so on. The auction ends when no more bids are placed within the remaining time.
11. All items in the auction are identified with a countdown timer in hours, minutes, and seconds.

25. The online auction cannot be used by individuals who do not have full legal capacity to sign binding contracts, and, specifically, it cannot be used by persons under eighteen years of age.

26. LEILOSOC[®] assumes no responsibility arising from the fact that participants may not have full legal capacity to sell or purchase products.

27. Participants in the auction must inform LEILOSOC[®] of any situation that limits their legal capacity. If no such information is communicated, it will be assumed that they have full legal capacity.

28. The auction participant is required to keep the online auction access password confidential and must not use an access identification that doesn't belong to them. The auction participant assumes full responsibility for operations carried out using this information, even if done by third parties, with or without their authorization, and is also responsible for not disclosing the access password.

29. 30. The public deed of sale will be executed regardless of the existence or absence of a usage license and/or energy certificate and/or technical sheet, as the Insolvency Administrator is exempt from providing these under the law, which does not prevent the completion of the transaction.

b. In the event that financing/bank credit is required, the bidder/potential buyer must inform LEILOSOC[®] of this need in advance, knowing that they will be responsible for covering the costs related to obtaining all documentation required by the banking entity, including that which the Insolvency Administrator is exempt from providing, as mentioned in the previous point.

39. LEILOSOC[®] is not responsible for:

a. Losses resulting from failures or deficiencies of the auction portal or its maintenance operations caused by unforeseeable and insurmountable events beyond its control, which prevent it, either partially or fully, permanently or temporarily, from fulfilling contractual obligations and/or result from non-compliance, delay, or defective performance that is not attributable, by fraud or gross negligence, to the auctioneer or its representatives, agents, assistants, or any other persons it uses to fulfill obligations.

b. Failures or inefficiencies of electronic equipment used by bidders or discrepancies in the timing of such devices.

40. LEILOSOC[®], as an auction establishment, reserves the following rights:

44. The personal data provided by the auction participant will be used exclusively for purposes related to the execution of the respective contract, as well as for the auctioneer's information and marketing activities.

45. The auction participant agrees to provide and maintain accurate and up-to-date personal data. Personal data in the mandatory fields of the registration form that are found to be incorrect or incomplete will constitute grounds for the immediate suspension or termination of the online auction service, as well as for the termination of the respective contract.

M. NOTIFICATIONS

46. The auction participant agrees to receive notifications related to the electronic auction, including any changes to these General Sales Conditions, at the email address associated with their registration.
